Dear Classmate.

As we approach the 35th anniversary of our high school graduation, I am excited about the opportunity for us to spend some time together celebrating the event. I have contacted a travel coordinator and arranged a special rate for us on a weekend adventure that is sure to be a lot of fun. We have talked about taking a cruise together for some time and the first step has been done.

The sign up is assuming two people in the cabin so the per person rate for the first category is $413.62. You only need to sign up and pay your deposit right now and you have until February 2011 to pay the balance of $313.62 per person. I encourage you to think about trip insurance just in case you have some emergency and are not able to attend. You will, of course, need to verify what situations are covered by the insurance.
